

ENGLISH FOR PUBLIC SECTOR

For years Language Point has been creating training solutions tailored to organizations and institutions in the public sector, whose range of needs are broad and diverse. By undertaking a consultancy focus we carefully evaluate the needs of our clients and set a work program that guarantees the achievement of the objectives and results of the training set.

Our native speakers have developed programs and educational materials to meet the most diverse requirements aimed at such sectors as:

Military

Police

Medicine

Aeronautics

Scientific Research
