To bring long lasting benefits to the community by providing dedicated, high quality language training, that bases its principles on a combination of tradition and innovation.

To preserve this far sighted attitude, and to continue developing and implementing ideas and innovative programs of study, guaranteeing the highest possible quality of learning for our students.

To validate, day after day, our own ethical code that is based on few, but fundamental rules, which are considered indispensable for the efficient running of Language Point, its dependability and its reputation.

To diversify and render our services as experienced interpreters in the world of language training as well as being fully aware of how to transform each request in order to produce targeted and measurable results.

To provide companies, schools and private students with just one contact person to offer custom-designed services and consultancy.

To develop training and consulting to optimize the human resource capital, implementing development programmes which improve the organisation as a whole and achieve results.

A studied communicative methodology that guarantees quick and proven results for those who must use foreign languages at work

- For individuals, language training is a strong step in uncovering one's true potential;
- For companies, one uniform process to develop not only a company's own resources, but also the entire culture of the organisation;
- For private and public schools a specific language training is a great support to help students and teachers communicate in a global-related setting and prepare them for the realities of the Italian and international work environment.

HIGH IMPACT TRAINING AND RESEARCH EXCELLENCE IN THE TOURISM SECTOR OF TEACHING

We offer travel products and services for the new and experienced tourist, as well as classes in the cultural and artistic heritage of Italy in a great environment.

MAKE IT ITALY is a tourism and teaching project together that stems from the belief that the journey is a moment of great importance for the growth of the individual and the group and a unique learning experience and socialization is of great value.

Through cooperation with excellent partners, organizations and institutions, the professional staff of native English teachers and experienced tour guides have allowed us to create and offer our students special training of this kind in all areas of Italy. Florence, Venice, Rome, Turin, Mantua, Siena, Naples. We offer you one or two week Italian language courses in different settings. You can spend your time anywhere, in a typical hotel or enjoying Italian lessons in the classroom in the morning.

Accompanied by our guides and teachers you can enjoy the beauty of the area in the afternoon while learning our melodious language. All transport is organized in detail by Language Point.
